Missionary news:

Greetings dear friends,

We hope that this short note and testimony encourages you. Changed lives are proof that God is at work.

There are moments in serving the men that the Lord brings to us that are hard. There are days when we ask the questions if it is worth it.

The days when it seems that all the investment in a person is lost, is in vain.

I was reminded of that the other day as I stood in the room where some of the guys sleep. It was empty, with all the guys gone for the daily activities.

My heart felt empty. I had one of those "why bother" moments. One man left the program way too early. This sometimes happens and that is always hard for us.

Marko's story reminded us that even when men leave, go back to addiction, God continues working.

Even when they give up on themselves and we get discouraged, He does not give up ...!

Every opportunity to serve the lost is a SUCCESS.... How we and how God measures success is very different.

FAITHFULNESS IS SUCCESS.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR FAITHFULNESS IN PRAYING, GIVING AND SUPPORTING THIS MINISTRY.

Serving together,

Vera & Danny
