Missionary news:

Recently the military in Guinea, Africa forced the government of the country to resign in a coup. There is a lot of concern about peace and stability in the country. Lizette Lavoie sent this note to those praying for her and the Kids in Crises Centre.

Dear friends and prayer partners,

You may have been following a bit what is happening in Guinea, West Africa. I have talked with Lazare and all is well at the KIC center. Lazare said all is calm in the city and no one has been threatened.

In these situations I believe strongly that we need to pray for peace and stability, but above all that freedom of religion and the ability to continue to minister in the Lord's name be preserved. Please also pray that our Alliance church in Guinea would realize that it needs to respond to this new crisis with prayer and evangelism.

In Christ,
Lizette

Lets pray for the churches in Guinea that they continue to share the good news, and the people of Guinea, that peace and freedom continue.
