~June 29th 2025~

“Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”

¹⁴ Jesus replied, “Man, who appointed me a judge or an arbiter between you?” ¹⁵ Then he said to them, “Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; life does not consist in an abundance of possessions.”

¹⁶ And he told them this parable: “The ground of a certain rich man yielded an abundant harvest. ¹⁷ He thought to himself, ‘What shall I do? I have no place to store my crops.’

¹⁸ “Then he said, ‘This is what I’ll do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store my surplus grain. ¹⁹ And I’ll say to myself, “You have plenty of grain laid up for many years. Take life easy; eat, drink and be merry.”’

²⁰ “But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’

²¹ “This is how it will be with whoever stores up things for themselves but is not rich toward God

MISSIONARY NEWS:

Danny and Vera Kuranji, Serbia

Dear Friends,

We want to take a moment to share something deeply encouraging with you. We all need those reminders.

Recently, we received a series of heartfelt messages—not from one person, but from many—each sharing how their lives have been impacted. These testimonies are not just kind words; they are God-given reminders that our efforts are not in vain. You are a part of every note, every life change, every conversion, and every story of freedom from addiction and transformation.

There were times I wondered if our investments truly made a difference. Then came these messages—like spiritual energy bars—fueling us as we continue this marathon of serving. God alone receives the glory, and we all have the joy of rejoicing together.

Here are just a few of the many notes we received:

“I would never have a family or a place to call home. I disappointed many people, including you... but you showed me love and helped me. My boys and my husband are the greatest gifts. There are no words to express my gratitude."

(A young woman who grew up in an orphanage)

"My life is in turmoil, and the political situation worries me. I just want to thank you for showing my son and me the way to God years ago."

(A former police officer)

"I lived on the streets. Not a day goes by without remembering how you introduced me to the living God. My wife and I are celebrating our wedding anniversary, and I wanted you to know how much your care meant in my life."

(A man reached through our youth ministry)

"You cared for my son like he was your own. Though he still struggles with addiction, you never gave up on him. That changed me. Now I share the Good News too—even with a Muslim woman I met at work!"

(A woman who gave her life to Christ in Montenegro)

"Years ago, I sat in your home as a lost teenager. Now you're hosting a family from my church and impacting their lives."

(A pastor and missionary to Montenegro)

"I attended your meeting last year and again this year. I had never been to church before. Now, I never miss a meeting. Giving my life to Jesus in your home brought my life together. Thank you."

(A woman from Montenegro)

"My greatest love is preaching. To be invited to take on a new church plant seems unbelievable. I am grateful and humbled. Thank you for not giving up on me."

(Ex drug addict)

"Here is picture of my girls. I see His miracles and my life is a living praise. There is hope for people like me. Be encouraged."

(Ex drug addict)

These are just a few stories—each a miracle in its own right. They remind us that while some seeds take years to grow, others bear fruit quickly. But all will bear fruit in time. Be encouraged: your partnership is changing lives. These voices glorify God and testify that nothing done in love for His people is ever wasted.

As spring arrives, let's keep planting—if not in gardens, then in the hearts of people. Jesus deserves our wholehearted investment in others; after all, He gave His life for them.

"As a result of your ministry, they will give glory to God. For your generosity to them and to all believers will prove that you are obedient to the Good News of Christ."

— 2 Corinthians 9:13

Thank you for standing with us. We could not have served these past 30+ years without your faithful support.

With grateful hearts,

Vera and Danny
