Missionary news:

Ace and Cecilia Cheung, Niger

Thank you for praying for the reopening of NVOC. Hassi and our 3 sewing teachers are doing a wonderful job teaching and managing the centre and the students enjoy being back. Although we had an unexpected hiccup with our math teacher moving to another city, we are thankful God has already provided another Christian teacher to fill the position. Please pray for a fruitful and safe year of learning.

Also, last week our C&MA teammates on the field and NVOC staff and students celebrated last year's graduates with speeches, prayer and a meal as their official diplomas were issued by the Niger Ministry that oversees sewing centres. It was a day of fun for everyone. Please pray that the graduates would remember all that they learned in the three years they were with us and that the Holy Spirit would continue to impress upon their hearts how much our Father loves them.

We have much to be thankful for and that includes three believers from the Riyad Church who are about to start Bible school. Please pray that they would devote themselves wholeheartedly to their studies and that they would grow in their knowledge and experience of who God is, how to spread His glory and build His kingdom.

Thank you for your prayers and partnership in our ministry
