Missionary news:

Dan and Vera Kuranji

Greetings dear friends,

My taking the back seat last Sunday in church was God ordained. God spoke to me and I would like to share it with you.

As I took this seat, I could see so much better the people sitting in front of me and around me. The message was delivered by an ex-drug addict who now is a pastor of another evangelical church in Novi Sad. Only God could have transformed his life. His wife was not too far away, I could see her glowing, also an ex-drug addict, now leading so many activities in the church as well as leading a drug rehab for ladies that started a few months ago. Where would these two be if it was not for Christ ...?

Then I looked at the pastor of our church, the man who took Danny's place as we fully devoted ourselves to the drug rehab. He too was an addict (alcoholic) that came to our small church at the time over 20 years ago. He was lost, dark and depressed but now he is a gifted leader, preacher and pastor. Changed from drinking his life away to leading people to Christ. So glad God allowed us to point him to Christ.

Then I saw the guitar player, one of those success stories in our first generation, in the worship glowing as his wife stood and shared what God is speaking to her lately. She too was a drug addict.con't, pg 2.

During the worship ushers passed the offering plate. Another addict with great smile was part of this act. He used to steal, now he was serving and putting his own offering on the plate.

As I looked at all the men that sat in front of me, around 30 of them, all in the program, God assured me that He has his eye upon them. Many were raising their hands in worship, some were clapping... One of them got up during prayer time, hugged the younger one and prayed for him....

I could go on. There were family members, seekers , people looking for something ...

I am sure this is the place where they can find what they are looking for. Here they can find Christ!

Thank you for praying for us, for supporting us. It is people that we invest and it is people that God is changing that excites us. He has done amazing things, and it was good to be reminded of that sitting in the back ...

Be blessed and be encouraged.
