Missionary news:

A Long Detour

After being cooped up at home for most of the summer, we decided to take a camping trip in the mountains despite torrential rains. After driving up steep windy roads, dodging tree branches and rocks, we were almost there. Then we hit a roadblock - actually a couple of pylons in the middle of the road. The question was should we go over the pylons and continue or heed their warning? I stepped out of the car to investigate and saw that the road had been washed away by recent rains. Good thing we heeded.

We realized we would have to go all the way down the treacherous mountain road and back up another way. It turned out okay because our friends were at the bottom of the mountain with a dead car battery, so we were able to help them and then travel up together the other way.

Sometimes through life we are going on our way and God stops us and gives us a long detour. We aren't sure why, but further along the way we find that God has His divine purposes for even long detours

Praises and Prayers

- * Praise God that we came home safely from the mountain (they closed the roads the day after we arrived home)
- * Pray for continued boldness for our church to witness to the transforming power of Jesus
