Missionary news:

It's been a month since we landed back in Niger and we're thankful that we're settled into our home and ministries.

We're grateful that Iyla started grade 12! Please pray that she would have a memorable final year at Sahel Academy. Please also pray with us, that the leadership of SIM, owner of the school, would have wisdom and unity in making decisions about the purchase of a property and the possible sale of the old campus which was damaged in last year's Niger River flood.

Thank you for praying for Elise. She had a wonderful experience working this summer and is preparing for her second year of university, starting classes September 8. Please pray for continued adjustments living separately from us, good health, and a productive and fun year of school.

NVOC, our sewing school, will reopen in October and planning is in full swing. Please pray for the students who will be in their third and final year of training and for the staff who are currently organizing and preparing classes.

Sadly, our head sewing teacher, Amina, lost her husband this summer. Please pray for comfort and ask our Father to draw her close to His heart in this difficult season.

With Ace's clinic up and running, we would appreciate your prayers for patients to sense Jesus in the care that they receive.

Thank you for your prayers and support,
Ace and Cecilia
